Featured Betting Markets

These are the most common markets that are featured by bookmakers. Terminology for betting markets can vary by country, sport and even amongst bookmakers. We aim to simplify this by defining the following markets

Market Key (use in the API)	Market Names	Description h2h	Head to head, Moneyline	Bet on the winning team or player of a game (includes the draw for soccer) spreads	Points spread, Handicap	The spreads market as featured by a bookmaker. Bet on the winning team after a points handicap has been applied to each team totals	Total points/goals, Over/Under	The totals market as featured by a bookmaker. Bet on the total score of the game being above or below a threshold outrights	Outrights, Futures	Bet on a final outcome of a tournament or competition h2h_lay	Same as h2h	Bet against a h2h outcome. This market is only applicable to betting exchanges outrights_lay	Same as outright	Bet against an outright outcome. This market is only applicable to betting exchanges
